(TEXT OF BILL BEGINS ON NEXT PAGE)

1 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Arizona:
2       Section 1. Section 13-4085, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to 3 read:

4              13-4085. Release or detention of material witness: depositions

5       A. If it appears from an affidavit filed by a party that the testimony 6 of a person is material in a criminal proceeding pursuant to section 13-2319 7 and if it is shown that it may become impracticable to secure the presence of 8 the person by subpoena because of the immigration status of the person, the 9 court may order the temporary detention of the person and treat the person
10 according to the release provisions under section 13-3967 OR, IF THE PERSON
11 IS A JUVENILE, ACCORDING TO THE RELEASE PROVISIONS UNDER RULE 28 (c), ARIZONA
12 RULES OF PROCEDURE FOR THE JUVENILE COURT. A material witness may not be 13 detained because of the inability of the witness to comply with any condition 14 of release if the testimony of the witness can be secured adequately by 15 deposition and if further detention of the witness is not necessary to 16 prevent a failure of justice. The release of a material witness may be 17 delayed for a reasonable period of time until the deposition of the witness 18 can be taken pursuant to this section or the Arizona rules of criminal 19 procedure.

20       B. A material witness may be detained by a law enforcement agency. If 21 the material witness is a juvenile, the material witness may be detained in a 22 juvenile detention facility or a jail pursuant to section 8-305. A witness 23 shall not be detained for more than twenty-four hours unless an affidavit is 24 filed with the court pursuant to subsection A of this section.

25       C. A material witness who is being detained pursuant to subsection A 26 of this section may be kept in a physically separate section or be 27 administratively segregated from any person who is charged with, adjudicated 28 delinquent for or convicted of a criminal offense.

29       D. On the motion of any party or a material witness who has been 30 detained pursuant to subsection A of this section, the court may order the 31 examination of the material witness unless the material witness is the 32 defendant or a person who is excluded by rule 39(b), Arizona rules of 33 criminal procedure, on oral deposition. The deposition shall be noticed and 34 taken pursuant to rule 15.3, Arizona rules of criminal procedure.

35       E. The witness may be detained for a period of up to seven days after 36 entry of the order, except that if at any time during the period of 37 detainment it becomes reasonably feasible to conduct the examination, the 38 examination shall be conducted immediately and the court may order the 39 witness to be released immediately after signing the deposition under oath, 40 waiving the signature or otherwise affirming the factual accuracy of the 41 matters set forth in the deposition.

42       F. A deposition that is taken pursuant to this section may be used at 43 trial and at any pretrial proceeding pursuant to rule 19.3, Arizona rules of 44 criminal procedure.
